Haunting Ground (Tess Schafer-Medium Book 6) Deborah J. Hughes

While visiting friends in her old home town, Tess becomes involved with a couple of puzzling paranormal mysteries. Of course, with her ability that is nothing new. Determined to solve them, she must also make time for the family of the man who killed her husband. Although she's been able to move on from the tragedy, they have not. The more she gets to know them, the more certain she becomes that there is more to their story than what they are telling her. Stranger still is the increase in paranormal phenomena. All of which tells her there is much more going on than troubled ghosts needing help and a family in turmoil. Answers to her growing pile of questions need to be solved and quick. The messages to "help him" are becoming more urgent and so are her feelings on the matter! There is more at stake here than settling past hurts and putting spirits to rest. But can she solve them in time to matter?

Haunting Ground is book 6 in the Tess Schafer-Medium series but can be read as a stand-alone story. For those interested in checking out the whole series, the books are as follows:

Vanquishing Ghosts - Tess's new home has a very nasty entity inhabiting it. She'll have to use all her skills and knowledge to vanquish some ghosts or living there is going to be impossible!

Rosemary's Ghosts - When Tess answers Rosemary's call for help, she knows the moment her kayak touches ground on the small island that something ominous is afoot. What follows is one of her most chilling encounters yet!

Ghost Trouble - While Tess is away visiting family, Kade hosts an impromptu dinner party that soon becomes an ordeal of paranormal proportions, for a storm has blown in, trapping them with uninvited guests of the otherworldly kind!
