A high class prostitute at an upscale hotel lounge mistook me for another prostitute. I was flattered that she thought I was pretty enough to be one and I invited her to sit with me. I couldn't handle the way the cocktail waitress mistreated her, though, and I flexed my consider muscle with the hotel management. Before long, she and I were in my room enjoying drinks and laughing at how everyone had tripped over themselves to make me happy and to apologize. Things just happened from there, and before I knew it my husband was back from his errands and we all ended up together in a threesome that included my first lesbian sex ever! Here is a preview:

I felt pretty damned good about myself, and I felt happy for Hannah, and I have to admit that it was fun to flex my muscles every now and then. I had a great story to tell Martin and I knew he'd get a laugh to. We went to the room and I had her sit down while I told her about my company and she told me about her life. When the knock came at the door with the drinks, Hannah was shocked to see that they'd sent up finger foods, a fruit basket, chocolates, and a cheese plate along with the drinks. I wasn't. I was worth almost a million dollars in revenue per year to the hotel. She was also surprised that they'd forced the cocktail waitress to deliver it. The poor girl stammered through a mortifying apology, and Hannah graciously told her things were fine. I wasn't surprised that they sent the girl, but I was pleased.

When the waitress left, Hannah and I sat down, ate, and continued our conversation. Things were going normally until she started talking about the kinds of clients she had. She mentioned the first time she had a female client, and something stirred in me. I started asking lots of questions, and she answered them until finally she asked, "You've never been with a woman before, have you?"

Nervously, I shook my head.

"But after talking with me, you're curious?"

I nodded, again nervously. She started to lean forward to kiss me, but the door opened and Martin walked in from the conference.
