Third Chances (Parker Brothers Book 1) E. Davies

Not all that glitters is gold...

Ian McMiller, dumped by his jerk of an ex and forced to entertain spoiled billionaires at an exclusive club to pay his rent, is reluctant to do everything the club manager wants him to do. On a break from the wild and unrestrained atmosphere in there, he discovers a cat in the alley beside the club and hopes to rescue her by smuggling her into his apartment. Things take a turn for the worse as a billionaire he thought he could convince himself to like turns out to have a much uglier side. Just as he's giving up hope of getting out of this mess, his savior appears...

Gorgeous, reclusive billionaire Felix Parker is brokenhearted over his latest romantic entanglement and ready to give his brother a bruising for what he's done to him when he finds out that this cute young host has been taken advantage of by him, too. He immediately tries to take care of Ian, the cat, and his brother, but he soon discovers that he can only pick two out of three. As a natural worrier with a lot of responsibilities, Ian's the only one who makes him feel lighthearted and carefree... but can he afford to follow his heart?

This is the first stand-alone novel in a series with a HEA ending and NO cliffhanger.
