With the Earth destroyed by a supernova, the Space Star Silver Streak moves outward into the heavens, a self-sustaining starship housing thousands, settling colonies on other planets . . . moving outward into the deepest, unknown reaches of space . . .

These are the first twelve stories in the ongoing series in which the crew of the Silver Streak contend with the awesome forces of a hostile universe, dangerous criminals within their own ranks, and the enormous burden of saving the human race from extinction. Captain Richard Cameron, First Officer Frank Johnson, and Engineer Jack Hasta learn new things about the universe and about themselves as they search the galaxy for planets suitable for human colonization.

In this volume, Captain Cameron's old rival seeks to take over the ship, a dangerous lunatic takes over one of the colonies, the Silver Streak confronts a menacing machine civilization, and the ship stumbles into a sector of space where thoughts are transformed into reality. These are only a few of the mind-bending, shocking, and thought-provoking experiences in Volume One of Voyage Into the Unknown.
