Before You Were Born...Our Wish For A Baby (The Story of Embryo Donation) Janice Grimes

A story book written in age-appropriate, loving language and tells the story of how a child came to be via embryo donation or embryo adoption. The book is written for 3-5 year olds. Using bears as characters, the illustrations depict the typical day in the life of a child interacting with their parent. The story describes a child conceived by in vitro fertilization using the egg and sperm of another man and woman. The embryo is placed inside the mother's uterus, who then carried and delivers the child. The story does not contain the words "sperm" or "egg". The term "embryo donation" is used. This book is written for heterosexual couples and uses the words "Mommy and Daddy".
