This empowering unheard of story of true events can change your life! This is about the reincarnation of a mother and her son and their return back to earth in order to experience their soul's evolution, promise, and covenant. Their separate worlds would be extremely different for them coming here from the Light of Peace. They would have many tough choices to make and to go through. Both of them would have the opportunity to learn what their soul needed and to teach what they had promised in sealing their blessed Covenant with the Creator. In the beginning of God's Creation they were created as one soul, then divided for their work throughout their different lifetimes. Living a new life on Earth would not be easy with the many hard hurdles laid before them. Part of their mission was teaching Gods plan so no soul is ever lost; we evolve on with our choice of free will. Their largest struggle to conquer would be working in this world which is shaded in darkness. This story will tell of the many miraculous events that occurred to them with spiritual help from other realms in the Universe! These experiences are likely unheard of in our world. This is a once in a lifetime story which surpasses our beliefs of what powerful beings we all are and what we are!
