Most woman never forget their first love. Burn is no exception. Things did not work out between her and Brody, so they split up, and Brody was sent away by his parents. Heartbroken, Burn moved with Trojan, Brody's enemy.

However, years later, Brody, who is now an attorney, and his future wife return to Burn's town. Past unresolved issues and buried feelings surface for both Burn and Brody. To make things worse, Brody and Trojan resume their feud. The love triangle between Burn, Brody and Trojan intensifies with tragic results. If you enjoy modern-day love stories, contemporary romance, interracial and multicultural romance, sexy reads, or romantic thrillers with alpha males, you will love this fast-paced, humorous, but moving love triangle.

Burn has such a fantastic personality from the first page I was gripped I literally finished it within 3 hours. Overall freaking loved and so bloody funny near peed my pants. Am looking forward to reading next one."

"I genuinely loved this. I totally "got" Burn. I liked her kickass personality and just everything about her. Even though I am a 32 years old and white I could relate to her - if that makes sense to you? I "felt" her."

"This second book was great, for me it was even better than the first one. There were so many emotions flowing and I loved it!"

"I'm not sure if I like Gringa better, or Burn's World, but I can tell you omg...I was hooked from page one when I started reading Burn's Wrld. Burn is real, kickass, funny too. She's someone I would love to take on holiday. Lol. Lots of cussing, racial remarks, sexual reference and I didn't like that the books were so short. ? Overall, I loved the series, loved Trojan too. I laughed so much! I cried too. Overall, I definitely recommend it."
