Don't ever wait to say I love you. You might not get another chance.

He was adrift in a coma without the strength of my love for him and all because I could not say the words. Some nasty clawed demon snatched my throat and held me back and I might never have another chance.

I gave all that I am and all I can be to a man who didn't remember who I was. He was a stranger. What we had just begun was only a memory for me.

I faltered. I was afraid. I didn't know if I could love the new Reggie as I had loved the old one.

My blessed body found a way. His cursed mind destroyed it.

Somehow, some way we found each other again. Maybe we thought we were invincible. But, of course, no one is ever is.

Reggie's war was my battleground too. But my passion for him would lead me into danger that would put more than my heart in harm's way. Loving a warrior can kill a girl.

This is a five-chili hot steamy military romance meant for adults. It is the second part of the Hero's Love Story and is a cliffhanger.
