Emily Dickenson has big plans for her summer vacation. Coming off a win at the Fox Run show, she expects to fill her days with jumping lessons and beach rides. But now Esther wants her and Mickey to help run the Sand Hill summer camp. Four weeks of teaching little kids to post at the trot isn't exactly what she had in mind and that's not the only problem.

Harlow is lame. The vet says that he needs weeks of stall rest. Without her four legged partner Emily is left with nothing to ride, until she stumbles upon a scruffy pony being taken to slaughter. If she uses her winnings to save the pony, will she ever be able to buy the show jumper of her dreams? But if she doesn't, can she live with the guilt? And why does Jess want to stop her from saving the pony in the first place?
