Meet Charli.

Her world is ending – well, it’s not really, but it is being turned upside down and Charli is given to exaggeration! Her Mum and Dad have decided to move the family from London to Scotland – and Charli is NOT happy about leaving all her friends behind and having to change schools, but when you’re twelve years old and your Mum and Dad say you are moving to Scotland, well, you move to Scotland, don’t you? Charli does make new friends, but when she is diagnosed as being dyslexic and needing special needs lessons, this leads to her being bullied.

The weekend of the Outward Bound trip arrives and just as Charli thinks things couldn’t get worse – they do!!
