This book shows that victory is available when a believer in Christ understands his or her position in Christ and identification with Him and learns to live in yielded dependence upon the Lord in light of this truth as empowered by the Holy Spirit who gives us the victory over our indwelling sin nature. This book provides a clear, thorough, and practical exposition of Romans 6-8, the key chapters in the New Testament explaining how the Christian Life is to be lived by God's grace and power.
