MASTERPIECES OF WORLD LITERATURE in digest form, second series frank n. magill

This second series of Masterpieces of World Literature offers 500 additional sequence-by-sequence plot stories from the world's fine literature. Selected for popular as well as classic appeal, 1010 summaries of well-known novels, dramas, poems and other works are now available in the complete series. In ready-reference format, information concerning type of work, authorship, time and type of plot, locale, and date of first publication is given. The principal characters and their relationships are listed separately for quick reference; the digests involve no editorializing - they are straight-forward, readable outlines of the principal events, told in everyday language followed by a short critique.
