Okie, Dokie Artichokie Grace Lin

"Hey, if I get too loud or something, you can just bang on the ceiling and let me know," Marklee says to his new downstairs neighbor, Artichoke. But he never thought that someone could be so sensitive! No matter what Marklee does, from watching TV to talking on the phone, Artichoke bangs on the ceiling. And then he won't answer his door when Marklee tries to talk to him about it. "How rude!" thinks Marklee. But as holiday time approaches, Marklee decides to give him a second chance, and is surprised to discover that tall Artichoke has been bumping his head on the ceiling all along! With sweetness and a touch of suspense, Grace Lin shows how a little misunderstanding can be solved by simple communication.

Betty Giuliani:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Okie, Dokie Artichokie can make you experience more interested to read.
