Testimonials

"This new book by Henry Lee is a really practical guide to the topic. It comprises an in-depth exploration the topic. As a guide it is tangible and effective and it makes it possible to identify the problem and also deal with it. Apart from the specifics in the book - it gave me lots of insight into the gaming addiction problem more generally. Highly recommended." Jake

"As a former teenage computer game addict myself I wish I had this book back then.

I don't even know how much I missed while I sat in front in front of my playstation 1.

There was so many of beneficial things I could have been doing with y time.

This book touches on a very important and often over looked problem in society which effect both younger and older people alike.

If you feel like you have a problem with video games or somebody close to you has then you owe it to yourself to read this book." Kindle Critic
