Canine Conditions Jenny Skye

Tyler really hasn't accomplished anything. He is kind of pathetic, actually. But then the beautiful girl at the bar starts paying attention to him. He's so distracted that doesn't notice when she slips a little something extra into his drink. When he wakes up, everything is different. Naked and strapped down, he finds himself in the dark, completely helpless, wondering what this beautiful girl has in mind for him.

When she finally confronts him, she makes her desires clear. Jessica wants nothing less than a human dog. And Tyler is going to be that adorable puppy. Because he's still drowsy from the drug she slipped into his drink, he can't resist. She takes out a coin and begins his programming. Soon, he's entranced and susceptible to her every suggestion.

He'll be a puppy. He'll be obedient and eager, a licky boy desperate to service his new mistress. He'll do tricks. And once she's satisfied with his programming, she'll release him to see whether or not it worked. Step by step, she'll destroy his ID, his driver's license, and even his credit cards unless he can summon the willpower to resist. Or maybe he'll just be a good doggie.

Publisher's Note: This is a 7,000 word story about a beautiful girl who catches and trains a young man as her human dog; it features human pet play and female domination.
