Don't Go Down The Bunny Trail - An Easter Horror Story David Barker

Little Emily has been waiting patiently for weeks for Easter to arrive. Now there's just a few hours left, it's the afternoon before Easter, and she's really excited, but her daddy's late coming home from the mill, the sun is setting, and she's afraid of being home alone when the woods get dark. A scary short story about something strange that's coming down the bunny trail towards Emily's house, and she's not sure if it's really the Easter Bunny, or if it's that creepy rabbit from her dad's horror DVD, or something else the townsfolk whisper about that came to Earth when a fireball fell from the sky one night and landed in the lake at the end of the Bunny Trail.

Length: 5,275 words.
