Out of the Darkness: A Collection of Inspirational Poetry James Elkins

James Elkins II tells through these poems the true story of how he was able to overcome and conquer a sor did past through the power and grace of Almighty God. From "Shattered Dreams", which describes the painful thoughts of a survivor after a drunk driving accident, to "What Can Faith Accomplish", which describes the overcoming of seemingly in surmountable odds through the strength of faith, "Out of the Darkness" has something to say to everyone. Although not all poems within this book are of a "spiritual" nature, they are all filled with beauty, love, and thought provoking imagery to help anyone find the glory of God in his/her everyday life. If you have ever looked up and asked "Why?", you may find an answer, or directions to the answer in these pages. When you think there is no hope for you or your life, think again! These words were inspired by a deep commitment to the power and mercy of Jesus Christ and our Heavenly Father.
