As German armed forces invade Norway in 1940, six Americans are stranded as the bombs drop around them. Their lives get more complicated when a wounded British soldier arrives on their doorstep. He desperately needs help, and the only help to be found is with the Germans. Consequently, Professor Wes Burton leads the Americans as they are escorted through Nazi Germany by the Nazi regime itself.

The Americans hold their secrets close as they begin to realize just how menacing the Germans have become in their efforts to control Europe and beyond. Wes and the Americans simply hope to get out unscathed, with their secrets intact. Their goal is Genoa, Italy; it is there where they need to board an American ship and sail to New York. They have ten days to do it. It is possibly their last chance to flee continental Europe as World War II grows in scope and intensity.

David Yoon:

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Ten Days in May can make you really feel more interested to read.
