When Finn discovers that the son he never knew he had was adopted into an abusive environment, he is compelled to find out for himself what has become of him.

What he finds is worse than he ever could have imagined--his son is an active member of the most murderous gang in the city.

Finn tries to convince his son to give him a chance, but the lure of the gang, and his loyalty to them, the closest thing to a family he's known, puts everyone in danger.
