This narrative goes well beyond the mere experience of surviving death. It describes the process of reassembly into a new body. It then continues with the details of daily life and what you'll be doing. It goes on to describe the celestial personalities you will encounter and work with. Learn of the correction of those things we failed to accomplish here, whether of our own making or from unfortunate heredity and environment. It's like finding a family you were unaware of - a heavenly one.

This account ends with graduation from the mansion worlds, having achieved what we spend this lifetime pursuing: a balanced personality with a soul of nobility - "one together person."

The source of this information is from The Urantia Book. For those not already familiar with it, it is an epochal revelation of Deity, the cosmos, the history of our world, and the life of Jesus.
