The Sins of Séverac Bablon: Sax Rohmer's Suspenseful Tale of a Jewish Robin Hood (Timeless Classic Books) Sax Rohmer

Here is a recent Amazon review of The Sins of Séverac Bablon: I really enjoyed this book. I love anything in the Robin Hood vein. It's a legend I've loved since I was a boy. Rohmer adds an interesting twist by making this Robin Hood Jewish. Some people are opposed to the idea thinking it will give rise to anti-Semitic sentiment, though I'm not sure why. Who doesn't love Robin Hood? And why wouldn't people love a Jewish Robin Hood just as much? I certainly did. Rohmer successfully gives us yet another clever foil who is able to keep Scotland Yard completely baffled. He is a brilliant writer of the mystery genre, and his talent shines through in this book. Usually his foil is a villain, but in this book he gives us a hero we can all root for. This is an exciting and excellently paced read full of action and intrigue. I would expect no less from the author of the world famous Fu Manchu series. Rohmer is at the top of his game on this one as well. If you love mysteries and enjoy a hero whose antics are brilliant, I believe you will love this book as much as I did. I strongly recommend it.
