Holier than Thou M' Roberts

Essentially there exists in this world two types of Christians. The ones that purpose themselves to consistently try to submit to the will of God and operate out of obedience and reverence to HIM and the ones who know God, but live for the things of this world and/or the gratification of their flesh instead of living for God thereby causing their faith and/or religion to appear questionable, as being something that can be stereotyped by those in observation, as hypocritical, pretentious and/or a farce. Holier than Thou is about the basic principles that God has called upon all people to help us navigate through life in harmony and unification. Truth of Scripture is communicated in love and is done in a manner that allows for virtually anyone, whether a believer or not, to be able to understand and relate to said truth. M' Roberts has a background of over 20 years in Marketing, Advertising, Sales Training and Management. He currently is the President of Creative Marketing Group www.creativemarketinggroup.net. In addition, He serves as an Elder in his local Church. He serves on the Board of Directors as Board President for the Forgotten Ones Foundation, www.theforgottenones.org, which he also is co-founder. While he works tirelessly to serve and assist with the needs of others, his first ministry is his family, of which he is married and a father of four. It is his love of God and all people that inspire him to do his utmost to help others. As someone who has been homeless himself, he fully knows and understands many of the types of struggles and challenges that many people face. It is his desire to touch as many lives in a positive way as humanly possible.
