"Beauty is, indeed, in the eye of the beholder as three young women from Salt Lake City discover love is blind and find happiness to last forever."

Be captured by homely, marred & scarred Emma when her most handsome, tortured man shows her that true beauty shines from within.

TERRIFIED & BURDENED . . .

Emma Bartholomew NEVER ever wants to return to jail again, especially because of the torturous things that happened to her in there.

Conned and used by the man she loved, Emma lies in court and goes to prison for prostitution, a crime she's never committed.

Wanting to start a NEW LIFE . . .

So, she follows her two sisters' footsteps and becomes a mail-order-bride.

Full of hope and determination, Emma goes to the town only to find the man she was supposed to marry isn't there to meet her.

Her husband-to-be has married another before she's even arrived!

What will she do?

Can she ever stop being a failure?

JILTED & ABANDONED, and now she is homeless . . .

But when the brother of the man who's jilted her offers her an option, Emma has no choice but to accept it.

HE is the most handsome man she has ever seen and

SHE is just plain and homely, plus her SCARRED body . . .

She could never hope for him to love her but at least now she has a home.

Brendan Radcliffe knows what's inside a person is more important than any looks on the outside. He has a dark secret- a burden he has been carrying and hiding all these while.

When he finds out about Emma being abandoned by his brother, Brendan feels obligated to help this young lady out and he's already made up his mind to marry her himself, but when he sees her soft brown eyes he knows she's the one for him in an instant.

Will Emma accept that Brendan can love her despite her awful past and terrible choices?

Can Brendan reveal his dark secret and find a way to trust and love again?

. . . "A heart-warming story about hard truths and finding the courage to love and face reality." . . .
