Finally! What Christians have searched for since the Reformation—the early church premillennial view of prophecy. It was lost in the dark ages. It was prevented from being researched in the sixteenth century by Reformation wars. Early Church Premillennialism remained lost. Until today! Today, all discovered writings of the earliest church fathers have been compiled in the ten-volume collection The Ante-Nicene Fathers, Translations of the Writings of the Fathers Down to A.D. 325. Gleaned from almost a hundred quotations from these early church writings, you will discover in this book what those who lived closest to Christ's disciples taught about: The Rapture of the Church Signs that Precede Christ's Return (are they now unfolding?) The Tribulation (they interpreted it differently than today) The Antichrist (their insights into this coming evil world leader) The Wrath of the Lamb Armageddon The Millennium The New Heaven and New Earth . . . and much more . . . You will find how simple Bible prophecy is when interpreted as the earliest church fathers knew how to interpret it.
