A Perfect Union of Patchwork and Applique Darlene C. Christopherson, C&t Publishing

An exploration of the possibilities of combining the techniques of patchwork and applique in quilt-making. Darlene Christopherson presents 18 applique block designs in her signature flowing style. Readers will discover 26 variations of three traditional pieced blocks, some with unique applique embellishment along with five sashing options and three borders. These projects should be appropriate for every skill level and come complete with instructions for hand applique, template piecing, rotary cutting, hand quilting, and finishing. There is also a gallery of quilts by Darlene and her students to offer creative inspiration.
