Liane Cameron has not exactly had an easy life, but sometimes life has a funny way of throwing curveballs. She has just received her degree in counseling and now she wants to give back to the community.

She feels that she needs to prove herself. The one thing that she does know is that her family is not supportive of her decision not to join the family business. Never one to take the easy route, Liane finds herself falling for one of her counseling subjects. Tom Jackson is not an easy man to read and it doesn't hurt that he has the kind of body that would make most women drool. He has a reputation for being someone that has lived on the other side the tracks. Their initial meeting is ripe for sexual tension, but her job means more to her than just a one night stand.

What she doesn't realize is that Tom has a way of getting underneath her skin to that itch that has not been scratched in some time.
