Alpha Bravo: A Freshman Spy Novel (Volume 3) TK Kennedy

On the campus of Stanford University, there exists an old diary penned by a United States Senator who has long since passed, but the diary's dark secrets live on. Only three people have read the diary - two of them have been murdered and the other is an undergraduate student by the name of Ryan Lane. Meanwhile, a few hours away in Fresno, California, a political assassin's parole hearing has attracted worldwide media attention including Tony Kaye, an old school pen and paper journalist with the Washington Post. Inside a packed room full of prison guards and reporters, the assassin collapses and dies and Tony Kaye's investigative radar points him toward the story of a lifetime, a story that may cost him his life. Suddenly, more people connected to the diary are turning up dead and Ryan turns to Tony Kaye to stop a killer from reaching his ultimate goal, his unimaginable goal. There is one crucial problem – Ryan Lane and Tony Kaye are now the killer's next targets. The race is on.
