One of the harsh realities of human existence is the phenomenon of suffering. Mankind throughout history has made frantic effort to eliminate this albatross but to no avail. The reality of suffering in life often triggers off questions that underscore and seek the meaning and the effect of suffering in life. All too often in such moments one has two options. Namely, to look up to God in faith and be at peace or to wallow in self-misery and pity that aggravates the suffering.
